

Sample Accessibility Statements:

Grounds For Sculpture, Inc. (GFS) is fully committed to ensuring that accessibility guidelines and requirements as set forth by the federal government and state of New Jersey are implemented in as timely and efficient a manner as possible.

GFS has been consistently responsive to making the arts accessible for all people with disabilities and will continue to strive to provide the utmost accessible experience possible. Through GFS programming, design, and service, we continue to reach out to and provide assistance and appropriate accommodation.

GFS trains its staff and volunteers in order to encourage superior and effective communication and the practice of effective and sensitive techniques to serve members of the community with disabilities. GFS is also committed to exercising best practice and outreach in regards to employing persons with disabilities, both in artistic and administrative/operational areas.

GFS regularly reviews its policies and procedures to adapt, accommodate and address any issues or problems that might arise in regard to ADA compliance and will regularly assess its progress in achieving full compliance.

Monmouth Arts is fully committed to providing equal access for all of its patrons, employees, and the public. Upon request, Monmouth Arts will make the necessary accommodations to allow individuals with special needs to participate in Monmouth Arts services, programs, and activities to the fullest extent possible.

Monmouth Arts has a designated coordinator to facilitate compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), as required by Section 35.107 of the U.S. Department of Justice regulations, and to coordinate compliance with Sections 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

While the above laws mandate equal access to people with disabilities, Monmouth Arts makes it a priority to establish a workplace and environment that embrace the spirit of the law, ensuring an optimal experience for all.

Information and other accessible materials will be made available on our website in a timely manner, and upon request, information will be made physically available in alternative formats. Monmouth Arts regularly reviews its policies and procedures to adapt, accommodate, and address any issues that might arise in regard to ADA compliance and will regularly assess its progress.

The Ocean City Arts Center (OCAC) is fully committed to ensuring that accessibility guidelines and requirements as set forth by the federal government and state of New Jersey are implemented in as timely and efficient a manner as possible.

OCAC has been consistently responsive to making the arts accessible for all people with disabilities and will continue to strive to provide the utmost accessible experience possible. Through OCAC programming, design, and service, we continue to reach out to and provide assistance and appropriate accommodation.

OCAC trains its staff and volunteers in order to encourage superior and effective communication and the practice of effective and sensitive techniques to serve members of the community with disabilities. OCAC is also committed to exercising best practice and outreach in regards to employing persons with disabilities, both in artistic and administrative/operational areas.

OCAC regularly reviews its policies and procedures to adapt, accommodate and address any issues or problems that might arise in regard to ADA compliance and will regularly assess its progress in achieving full compliance.

Fellowship Cultural Arts Center - Web Accessibility Statement

We are committed to making this site available to the widest possible audience, including those using screen readers, magnifiers, or other forms of adaptive technology. We are also committed to adhering with Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 2.1. While we strive to adhere to the accepted guidelines and standards for accessibility and usability, it is not always possible to do so in all areas of the website.

We are proud to take a proactive approach to reviewing our website for accessibility and encourage visitors to alert us to any access barriers they encounter while using our site. If you come across an accessibility issue, please contact our team at accessibility@glynndevins.com. In your message, please let us know the nature of the issue you have encountered and the type of adaptive technology you were utilizing at the time.

